<sup>1</sup> The Court accepts cash, checks, money orders, American Express, VISA, MasterCard, Discover/Novus, Diners Club International, and ACH debit payments. Debtors' personal checks and credit cards are not accepted when filing a petition. We do not accept third party checks. A voluntary petition by an individual or an individual and spouse may be paid in no more than four (4) installments, upon application to the Court.

<sup>2</sup> The fee for filing a petition consists of a filing fee, an administrative fee, and, for chapter 7 petitions, a trustee surcharge, combined here for simplicity.

<sup>3</sup> This is a mandatory fee in addition to the fee for appeals and cross appeals. It is due upon filing and may not be waived or deferred.

<sup>4</sup> The fee for requesting a direct appeal or cross appeal from a bankruptcy court decision to the Court of Appeals is $298 ($293 appeal fee + $5 notice of appeal fee). If the Court of Appeals authorizes the direct appeal, an additional fee of $207 is due to the Bankruptcy Court.

<sup>6</sup> The exemption from paying the fee to reopen a case applies in only three situations: (1) reopening a case to permit a party to file a complaint to obtain a determination under Rule 4007(b); (2) reopening a case when a creditor is violating the terms of the discharge under 11 U.S.C. § 524; and (3) reopening a case solely for purposes of redaction, if reopening is required by the court. The court may defer payment of the fee from trustees pending discovery of additional assets. The court will waive a deferred fee when no additional assets are discovered.

<sup>7</sup> There is no fee to change the address of a listed creditor, or to add/change the name and address of a listed creditor's attorney.
