

Louis H. Kornreich

Of Counsel

Meet Judge Kornreich, Business Restructuring and Insolvency Mediator.

Widely recognized as an effective mediator, leader, and problem solver.

Before leaving the bench after 14 years of service, Louis H. Kornreich was Chief Judge of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Maine. He was a member of the Bankruptcy Appellate Panel for the First Circuit and a visiting Judge in the Districts of Delaware and New Hampshire. Judge Kornreich is widely recognized for his work as both a trial and appellate judge. He presided over many of the largest and most complex reorganizations in Maine history including Great Northern Paper and Androscoggin Energy, a cross-border natural gas case. Most recently, he was the American judge in Montreal, Maine & Atlantic Railway, the jointly administered cross-border bankruptcy cases resulting from the tragic Lac-Megantic fire. Those cases have had international ramifications
