
Motions to Sell and Notices of Intended Sale

Rule to Remember:

- Never File a Notice of Intended Sale as a separate document. Always file it as an attachment or part of the Motion to Sell. The Court Will Have the Notice Docketed Once the Hearing, Objection and Counteroffer Dates have been set by the Court.
1. If the Motion to Sell and the Notice of Intended Sale are two separate PDF documents, file the Motions to Sell and attach the Notice of Intended sale.
 2. If the Motion to Sell and the Notice of Intended Sale are a single PDF document (usually with the Notice of Intended Sale as the last pages), file the document as a Motion to Sell and use the free text box to add Notice of Intended Sale.
