

STANDING ORDER 10-1

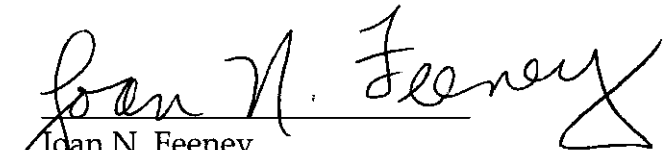

To correct a scrivener's error which resulted in a conflict between MLBR 3007-1 and Chapter 13 Rule 13-13, Chapter 13-13(c) is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following provision.

- (c) Only the provisions of MLBR 3007-1(a), (c), (d), and (f) apply to chapter 13 cases. A party objecting to claims shall attach a notice to the objection filed with the Court, which shall advise claimant(s) that a response to the objection must be filed within 30 days of the filing of the objection with the Court. The objecting party shall serve the objection and the notice on the claimant at the address noted on the proof of claim or any subsequent address provided to the Court by the claimant and upon any other party entitled to notice together, with a certificate of service.

Dated as of this 2nd day of February, 2010.
