<sup>1</sup> A debtor can pay fees using a money order or cashier’s check. All other parties can pay fees with checks, money orders, American Express, VISA, MasterCard, Discover/Novus, Diners Club International, and ACH debit payments. The bankruptcy court does not accept cash or third-party checks from any party. A debtor may pay the petition filing fee in no more than four (4) installments, upon application to the bankruptcy court.

<sup>2</sup> The fee for filing a petition consists of a filing fee, an administrative fee, and, for chapter 7 petitions, a trustee surcharge, combined here for simplicity.

<sup>3</sup> This is a mandatory fee in addition to the fee for appeals and cross-appeals. It is due upon filing and may not be waived or deferred.

<sup>4</sup> The fee for requesting a direct appeal or cross-appeal from a bankruptcy court decision to the court of appeals is $298 ($293 appeal fee + $5 notice of appeal fee) and is payable to the bankruptcy court. If the court of appeals authorizes the direct appeal, an additional fee of $207 is due and payable to the bankruptcy court.

<sup>5</sup> No fee is charged when the conversion order is made on its own by the court (i.e., sua sponte), in the absence of a notice or request of a party. The fee to convert to Chapter 11 is payable upon conversion, rather than upon filing.

<sup>6</sup> The reopening fee will not be charged in the following situations: (1) reopening a case based on an alleged complaint to obtain a determination under Rule 4007(b); (2) reopening a case based on an alleged violation of the terms of the discharge under 11 U.S.C. § 524; (3) reopening a case to request to withdraw unclaimed funds; (4) reopening a case to correct an administrative error; and (5) reopening a case solely for purposes of redaction, if reopening is required by the court. The court may defer payment of the fee from trustees pending discovery of additional assets. The court will waive a deferred fee when no additional assets are discovered.

<sup>7</sup> There is no fee to change the address of a listed creditor, or to add/change the name and address of a listed creditor's attorney.
