Information on Filing Claims:

Bar Date: November 30, 2026

Creditors can file claims on the Stretto website, <https://cases.stretto.com/BentleyBrook/file-a-claim/> on the Court's website, see <https://www.mab.uscourts.gov/claims-e-filing> and <https://www.mab.uscourts.gov/electronic-proof-claim-faqs>, and also either in person at or by mail to the Court's offices, <https://www.mab.uscourts.gov/court-info/court-locations>. See also, <https://www.uscourts.gov/forms/bankruptcy-forms/proof-claim-0>

Filing Additional Pleadings:

Unrepresented parties can file pleadings in person at or by mail to the Court's offices at: <https://www.mab.uscourts.gov/court-info/court-locations>. In addition, pro se parties are permitted to file documents by the following means: (a) by email, with the appropriate document or documents attached in PDF format, sent to prose_filings@mab.uscourts.gov. The court will not read or consider any text in the email itself and will only upload the attached PDF documents. If a pro se filer is unable to attach documents in a PDF format, the pro se filer should contact the Clerk for instructions; (b) by facsimile to (617) 748-5359; or (c) through any other method expressly authorized in advance by the Clerk.

Electronic Bankruptcy Noticing:

The U.S. Bankruptcy Courts offer the bankruptcy community Electronic Bankruptcy Noticing (EBN). EBN is a FREE service that allows court notices to be transmitted electronically, delivering them faster and more conveniently. Visit <https://bankruptcynotices.uscourts.gov/>.
